AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR QUALITY Fox Valley Section 1208

Date: December 15, 2011

Subject: Announcement of the Richard A. Maass Memorial Scholarship to be Awarded for the Academic Year 2012 - 2013 by the Fox Valley Section 1208 of the American Society for Quality.

The Fox Valley Section 1208 of the American Society for Quality takes pleasure in announcing the availability of the Richard A. Maass Memorial Scholarship for the 2012 - 2013 academic year. The scholarship will fund one year of undergraduate tuition and fees up to a maximum of $2,000.00 to the university / college attended by the successful applicant. Current high school seniors and first year community college students, who intend to be university undergraduates next year, are eligible to apply for the award.

The scholarship committee requests that the high school or community college that is interested in participating in the scholarship competition will select and recommend only scholastically deserving students from high school seniors or first year community college students from their institution. The successful applicant will be selected on the basis of academic achievement, community service, outstanding essay on the importance of quality products and/or services to the future of our country, and financial need.

Complete instructions concerning the application process are attached to this letter.

The application deadline is March 5, 2012. After evaluation of all completed applications, the selected scholarship recipient only will be notified of his / her selection by the Scholarship Committee in the third week of April 2012.

Please find on the back of this letter a description of the history and mission of our section of the American Society for Quality and the purpose of our scholarship.

If you have any questions or comments concerning the scholarship, please mail them along with your name, address and telephone number to the address given below.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Maass Memorial Scholarship Committee
