

Fox Valley Institute is a well-established, innovative, full-service clinical group practice that is transforming the health and wellness industry. Our dynamic team is comprised of psychologists, licensed marriage and family therapists, licensed clinical professional counselors, licensed clinical social workers, interns, and an energetic administrative department.

Fox Valley Institute (FVI) is located in Naperville, Illinois, in a warm, beautiful 7,000 sq. ft. professional building. We are a multi-award-winning counseling practice and very committed to our clients, community and our team members. If you are seeking to become part of a dynamic team in a full or part-time position as an employee, please review the qualifications, benefits, and team testimonials below. We welcome you to learn more about our practice via our website at www.fvinstitute.com.

Qualifications and Requirements:

- Masters Degree or Psy.D.
- Licensed with the Illinois Department of Professional Regulations
- Experience in 1 or more following counseling services: children, adolescents, adults, couples, marriage, family, addiction, veterans, first responders, group, coaching, divorce mediation, play therapy
- Excellent clinical skills
- High moral standards
- Passionate about helping others
- Value afternoon and evening client hours
- Enjoy working as a team
- Desire to learn and grow
- Open to innovative treatment and technology
- Comfortable working with an electronic medical record (EMR) system
- Be adept with EFT, CBT, DBT and/or ACT, and comfortable integrating other modalities into treatment approaches
- Full-time caseload is 25-30 therapy hours a week. Part-time caseload is 15-20.

Benefits for Therapists who work 25 hours or more per week:

(identifies benefits that also apply to part-time therapists)*

- Competitive compensation *
- 401K Plan *
- FSA *
- Malpractice insurance
- Health insurance plan
- Supplemental insurance through Aflac
- Psychology Today profile and advertising *
- Administrative support provided for billing, credentialing, initial scheduling, insurance claims, marketing, and accounting *
- Individual consultation *
- Team consultation *
- Monthly group case consultation *
- Highly innovative technology tools *
- Flexible work schedules *
- 24-hour Coverage *
- Well established brand *
- Access to beautiful and comfortable office space *
- Consistent stream of referrals from community partners, FVI team, and clients to assist with maintaining a full caseload *
- Growth – Encouragement – Appreciation *

Below is feedback from a few of our current clinicians describing why they love being part of Fox Valley Institute for Growth and Wellness:

"Fox Valley Institute is a collaborative, genuinely caring environment dedicated to encouraging and fostering personal and professional growth." - Cheryl Frommelt, LCPC, LMFT, Clinical Director, Divorce Mediator

"When you work at Fox Valley you are working in a beautiful environment. You also work with a team that is held to a high standard of clinical competency and keeps its offerings fresh and current." - Suzanne Kennon, MA, LCPC

"I love the flexibility, the high standard of care, and the opportunity to make a living doing what I love." -Dr. Chris McGrath, Chief Psychologist